

STUDIO ART, MINOR

DEVELOPS YOUR TALENT IN ART AND DESIGN WHICH CAN BE APPLIED TO ANY MAJOR WHERE CREATIVE EXPRESSION IS VALUED.

18 HOURS TOTAL

INCLUDES CLASSES IN

- » DESIGN FUNDAMENTALS
- » ART HISTORY
- » DRAWING, PAINTING, OR SCULPTURE
- » PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT

STUDIO ART MINOR CLASSES

ART 101 - Basic Design I

ART 102 - Basic Design II

One of the following (3 hrs.):

ART 125 - Art Appreciation

ART 406, 407 or 408 - History of Modern Art, Art History I or, Art History II

Three Courses in any studio art area (9 hrs.):

These could include combinations of classes in Drawing, Painting, Sculpture, Ceramics, Photography, Interior Design, Illustration, Graphic Design, Printmaking, or Papermaking.

The Minor in Studio Art adds 18 hours of fundamental training in studio art to your major. This minor focuses on the core concepts needed to function in today's creative market. The classes will help you develop a portfolio of marketable skills used in a variety of jobs and professional services.

If you have any questions or would like to schedule an advising appointment, please contact Mr. Ray Gregory: gregory@mc.edu

A perfect match for majors in:

Business

K-12 Education

Interdisciplinary Studies

Christian Studies

Communications

Kinesiology

History

Public Relations

Creative Writing

art.mc.edu